2026 FINOS COMMUNITY AWARDS · INDIVIDUAL TRACK

Rising Star

The person whose first year in the community produced an outsized result: a new project, a new standard, or a room that now shows up because of them.

THE NOMINEES

Flamur Gogolli
AWS

Co-founder and maintainer of the Open Resource Broker

Neil McGonigle
Fidelity

FINOS Ambassador, on our stages in London and New York

Ryan Johnston
Summit58

More project meetings than any other vendor participant

Gabor Liptak
Capital One

140 reviews, 31 meetings

Pieter Schutte
NatWest

250 reviews, 50 meetings

2026 FINOS COMMUNITY AWARDS · INDIVIDUAL TRACK

Rising Star

And the winner is...

Flamur Gogolli

AWS

One year. A new project co-founded with Morgan Stanley's Cyriaque Millot, three and a half thousand contributions, reviews of other people's work, and two stages — Toronto and London — to explain why it mattered. He did not wait to be asked.

ACCEPTED BY

Flamur Gogolli

OPEN RESOURCE BROKER

2026 FINOS COMMUNITY AWARDS · INDIVIDUAL TRACK

Breaking the Status Quo

The individual who changed what their own institution believed was possible: unlocked a policy, a budget, a sponsorship or a team, and brought their firm into the open.

THE NOMINEES

Rob Underwood
JPMorgan Chase

Open source from inside one of the largest banks in the world

Adam Dikker
S&P Global

CDM leadership and the workshop space that hosted our training

Bhupesh Vora
RBC

Took RBC into the AI Fund on day one

Jerome Andrews
DTCC

Made DTCC a founding member of the AI Fund

Mark Paulsen
TD Bank

No membership to Platinum in a year

2026 FINOS COMMUNITY AWARDS · INDIVIDUAL TRACK

Breaking the Status Quo

And the winner is...

Mark Paulsen

TD Bank

Twelve months ago, a banker with an idea and no membership. Since then: one part of TD after another into this community, sponsorship, Fluxnova in production, Platinum — and the only banker to speak at all three of our forums.

ACCEPTED BY

Mark Paulsen

2026 FINOS COMMUNITY AWARDS · INDIVIDUAL TRACK

Trailblazer

The contributor who opened a new problem space for the industry: the idea that did not exist in FINOS a year ago and now has a working group around it.

THE NOMINEES

Jonathan Schneider
Moderne

Automated code remediation, brought to OSERA

Juan Escalada
G-Research

GitProxy 2 and the security posture every project relies on

Francesco Beltramini
ControlPlane

The day-to-day engine of OSERA and Common Cloud Controls

Harish Malavade
Fidelity

Fluxnova 3.0, in production

Mike Long
Kosli

The SDLC Controls Framework working group

2026 FINOS COMMUNITY AWARDS · INDIVIDUAL TRACK

Trailblazer

And the winner is...

Mike Long

Kosli

Looked at the AI Governance Framework and Common Cloud Controls and saw what was missing between them: controls for the software delivery lifecycle itself. Proposed the framework, then built a working group around it with firms from across this room. Someone had to go first.

2026 FINOS COMMUNITY AWARDS · INDIVIDUAL TRACK

Leading the Pack

The person who made others better: who chaired, mentored, reviewed and set the standards that let the whole community scale.

THE NOMINEES

Maxime Coquerel
RBC

Years chairing the Common Cloud Controls steering committee

Francesco Beltramini
ControlPlane

Three stages, and the coaching load in OSERA and CCC

Pieter Schutte
NatWest

250 reviews of other people's work

Chris Rayner
ISLA

Nearly seven hundred answers and reviews on CDM

Maria McParland
JPMorgan Chase

Co-chair of the Technical Oversight Committee

2026 FINOS COMMUNITY AWARDS · INDIVIDUAL TRACK

Leading the Pack

And the winner is...

Maria McParland

JPMorgan Chase

J.P.Morgan

Co-chaired the Technical Oversight Committee through the busiest year of contributions we have had — the committee every struggling project and awkward governance question lands on — and introduced the Project Health Checks that tell every maintainer exactly where they stand. Standards that scale a community are rarer than code.

ACCEPTED BY

Maria McParland

2026 FINOS COMMUNITY AWARDS · INDIVIDUAL TRACK

Contributor of the Year

The individual whose work across FINOS projects moved the foundation furthest this year — judged on reviews, collaboration and leadership as well as the volume of code.

THE NOMINEES

Damian Reeves
Capital One

The largest committer in the foundation, on Morphir

Juan Escalada
G-Research

GitProxy and the security posture every project relies on

Kris West
NatWest

FDC3, year after year after year

Mauricio Uyaguari
Goldman Sachs

The most code reviews of anyone

Hugo Hills
REGnosys

Rune and CDM: two thousand contributions and four hundred reviews

Matthew Bain
Morgan Stanley

CALM, from proposal to Graduation

2026 FINOS COMMUNITY AWARDS · INDIVIDUAL TRACK

Contributor of the Year

And the winner is...

Matthew Bain

Morgan Stanley

Morgan Stanley

5,111 contributions. 581 reviews of other people's code. 2,321 comments and answers. 61 project meetings. Two stages. Top of five of our six data sources — nobody else topped more than four. And CALM, which Matt maintains, brought 242 people into FINOS for the first time this year. That is not a codebase. That is a front door.

Instant Impact

The member whose momentum changed the foundation in a single year: the biggest step from where they stood twelve months ago to where they stand today.

THE NOMINEES

TD Bank

No membership to Platinum, Fluxnova in production, three of our stages

Moderne

Joined in February, sponsored Toronto, signed up to OSERA on day one

BrightQuery

Funding research and proposing projects from its first month

Summit58

A practice built around Fluxnova inside ten months

Fidelity

Fluxnova 3.0 in production and keynoted in London

2026 FINOS COMMUNITY AWARDS · MEMBER TRACK

Instant Impact

And the winner is...

Fidelity

A year ago Fluxnova was a donation and a hope. Tonight it is in production at one of the largest asset managers in the world and several GSIBs, keynoted on our main stage in London, with other firms building on it. 25 people in our project meetings and 42 engineers in our code. That is a bench. Rising contributor & maintainer of CALM.

ACCEPTED BY

Brian Warner, Harish Malavade, Rachana, Rohith

2026 FINOS COMMUNITY AWARDS · MEMBER TRACK

Spread the Word

The member that carried the FINOS story furthest beyond our own community: hackathons, ambassadors, press, speaking, and public adoption said out loud.

THE NOMINEES

DTCC

The hackathon programme and a founding voice for the AI Fund

RBC

Its own leaders in front of the press for the AI Fund

Morgan Stanley

Ten speakers on our stages this year

Red Hat

Twelve speakers — more than any member — and our VIP receptions

S&P Global

The workshop space that hosted our CDM training

2026 FINOS COMMUNITY AWARDS · MEMBER TRACK

Spread the Word

And the winner is...

DTCC

If you have been to a FINOS hackathon this year, thank Mia Gougisha and Johnna Powell: a programme that brought new engineers, new firms and new energy into this community. And when the AI Fund launched this summer, DTCC was there on day one, with its own leaders in front of the press.

2026 FINOS COMMUNITY AWARDS · MEMBER TRACK

The Ecosystem Builder

The vendor or services firm that bet its business on a FINOS project, grew the community around it, and grew with it.

THE NOMINEES

Scott Logic

Maintainers across Fluxnova, AIGF and CCC, and the State of Open Source in Finance report

ControlPlane

The security engineering behind OSERA and Common Cloud Controls

REGnosys

Rune, the CDM Masterclass, seven thousand code contributions

TradeHeader

The CDM training course, delivered in Toronto

Summit58

Summit58

Joined in January. Ten months later: a practice built around Fluxnova, more of our project meetings than any other vendor, and a steward sponsor of Fluxnova Con here in New York. A project a bank donated, a community that grew around it, and a firm that chose to make its living helping others adopt it. That is an ecosystem.
